On March 15, 2012, I received information regarding your outstanding performance when coming to the aid of other officers trying to locate a subject that had fled the scene. Several units converged on the scene, but were unable to locate him. You responded to the area and assisted with establishing a perimeter. You received information from a citizen that the subject was in his backyard. You confronted the subject and identified him as the wanted person and took him into custody.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for a job well done. You proved that you have an extraordinary commitment to excellence and were motivated to go outside your normal responsibilities. The great job you are doing is greatly appreciated.

Lieutenant,

Good morning. I just wanted to let you know that two of your guys did a great job yesterday.

At approximately 1415 hrs. Deputy Lewis had a wanted subject run from him in the area of Northfield and Memorial. Several units converged on the scene, but were unable to locate the subject. Transport Deputies Melton and Speck responded to the area and assisted with establishing a perimeter. Melton and Speck received information from a citizen that a subject matching the description of the wanted person was in his back yard. Speck and Melton confronted the subject, identified him as the wanted person and took him into custody.

Of course I was happy that the deputies apprehended the suspect, but I was most impressed that the transport deputies had the maturity to monitor activity outside of their normal responsibilities and that they made themselves available to a deputy in need of assistance.

Deputies Melton and Speck should be commended for a job well done!

Ty

Recently I received information regarding your outstanding performance in assisting convicted felons. After arresting a subject for failure to pay child support, it was explained that he was unable to pay because he couldn't find a job as a convicted felon. You later compiled a list of halfway houses, assistance programs, and employers who hire convicted felons and asked if those could be distributed to inmates in hopes that maybe "some of these guys can get jobs and quit coming to jail."

I would like to thank you for your diligence and willingness to get involved. Your genuine desire to assist the inmates is a great asset to the Sheriff's Office. I appreciate the great job you are doing.

RE: Letter of Accommodation for Trooper Michael Morgan and Deputy Mark Mack

This letter is to acknowledge Trooper Michael Morgan and Deputy Mark Mack for their outstanding service on Tuesday, May 1, 2012.

I was on the side of the road and called *847 and Trooper Morgan and Deputy Mack were dispatched to my location. I had hit some debris in the road and didn't know if my car was damaged. Upon arriving they ask if I was alright and then checked my car. Needless to say, I was frightened it being after dark and on the side of the road. These two officers put my mind at ease and Deputy Mack followed me several miles up the road to be sure that I didn't have any car issues going on home.

Therefore, I want to say "Thank You" to Trooper Morgan and Deputy Mack for being so thoughtful, understanding and kind to a very frightened lady.

Sincerely,

Connie Rademacher
