

PUBLIC SAFETY NOTES

The number of docketed criminal cases managed for 2014 from January to December was 1243 (An increase of 96 cases from 2013) of those 856 were misdemeanor Domestic Assaults, 260 were felony Domestic Assaults, 16 were stalking cases, 89 were violations of bail and 22 were violations of order of protection.

This number does not include other cases that are handled through Domestic Violence Court such as phone harassment, custodial interference, vandalism and preventing another person from making an emergency call.

There were a total of 275 protective order petitions filed in Chancery court during January and December of 2014. During this same period (January-December 2014) there were 250 protective order petitions filed in Circuit court. This is a total of 525 protective order petitions filed in 2014, which is a slight increase from last year.